Departments

Menu: General ? Departments

What

If your organization has different departments, they can be defined here. For each department, you have the option of working with cost centre numbers that are linked to the accounting system. This is useful if you have several departments, but they bill differently.

When you create dossiers later, you will find a mandatory field where you have to assign a predefined department.

